GREEN SIREN

Alluring absinthe gains wider appeal with artisanal attention and luscious local herbs. Surrender to the mermaid.

ALASKA, BOTTLED.

Some say Alaska's too big to bottle. But our small-batch, artisanal spirits, crafted in Southeast Alaska's first distillery, capture the flavor and feel of the Last Frontier.

A delicious reward for the adventurous soul.

Once feared by authorities and furtively sought by libertines, absinthe is suddenly respectable—although no less alluring. Ours is especially so. Based on a recipe from the 1700s, Green Siren takes time to craft because we don't take shortcuts. We skip the artificial color and sugar syrup and instead soak twice with herbs that thrive in Haines' climate: wormwood, lemon balm, and anise hyssop. Lightly licorice in flavor, Green Siren can be enjoyed in the classic absinthe ritual, in creative cocktails, or on the rocks. It won't make you hallucinate, but it might nicely adjust your attitude.

- Alaska's only native absinthe
- Double-soaked with local herbs
- Complex but user-friendly, with a light licorice flavor
