

ALASKA, BOTTLED.

Some say Alaska's too big to bottle. But our small-batch, artisanal spirits, crafted in Southeast Alaska's first distillery, capture the flavor and feel of the Last Frontier.

Icy Strait VODKA

Bottled at an “Alaskan strength” 90 proof, Icy Strait Vodka is nonetheless smooth and sippable. We make it by carefully re-distilling neutral grain spirits and tasting until it’s just right. Then we blend it with pure local water and serve up an exceptionally clean vodka, with just a hint of sweetness imparted by the corn it’s distilled from. Icy Strait Vodka is the perfect canvas for your favorite cocktail, and just as good “icy straight.”

50 Fathoms GIN

Winner of the Double Gold at the San Francisco World Spirits Competition and the Gold at the American Craft Spirits Awards, 50 Fathoms combines the classic London Dry style with a Southeast Alaskan twist. Local spruce tips, whole juniper berries, cinnamon and coriander make it bold-yet-balanced; tangerine lends a citrus finish. As one editor from Travel + Leisure put it, “I know what gin is supposed to taste like now.”

Boatwright BOURBON

Crafted from scratch with the same attention to detail that a boat maker brings to his trade, Boatwright Bourbon is a blend of two Straight Bourbon Whiskeys: our own recipe, made completely from grain-to-barrel in our craft distillery, and a finely-made Straight Bourbon Whiskey from our friends in Kentucky. The character is so unique, and so local, it’s like a postcard from Alaska. Aged two years in charred American white oak barrels.

Wrack Line RYE

For your discovering pleasure, we submit Wrack Line Rye. With a mash bill of 70 percent rye grain, it has enough rye character and spice to announce its presence, yet is balanced enough to play well with others in a cocktail. It starts with our small batch grain-to-barrel distillations on site. After maturing for at least 2 years, we combine our rye barrels with a Straight Rye Whiskey made in the heart of U.S. Whiskey-country.

GREEN SIREN

Our take on absinthe broadens the appeal of a cult favorite, thanks to artisanal attention and local Alaskan herbs. We start with a recipe from the 1700s, skipping artificial colors and sweeteners in favor of soaking twice with wormwood, lemon balm, and anise hyssop. The result is delectably complex, with a light licorice flavor. Can be imbibed in the classic absinthe ritual, in creative cocktails, or on the rocks.
